

33/8

THE POLISH TRADITION

148

THE POLISH TRADITION

AS SEEN BY A
RESIDENT FOREIGNER
EVENTS AND PERSONALITIES
IN POLISH HISTORY

Photo by Plat

Church and Street Market, Lublin

THE POLISH TRADITION

AN INTERPRETATION OF A NATION

BY

PAUL SUPER

Special Edition published for
THE POLISH MINISTRY OF INFORMATION with permission of George Allen & Unwin Ltd.

BRADFORD AND DICKENS, LONDON, W.C.1

PRINTED IN GREAT BRITAIN BY

All rights reserved

(PRODUCED BY MAXLOVE PUBLISHING CO. LTD., LONDON, N.1.
FOR THE POLISH MINISTRY OF INFORMATION).

FOURTH IMPRESSION 1944

THIRD IMPRESSION 1941

SECOND IMPRESSION 1940

FIRST PUBLISHED IN 1939

PUBLISHERS' NOTE

The Polish Tradition was written before the outbreak of war, and although a number of sentences are rendered out-of-date we have purposely refrained from altering them as they serve to show the indomitable spirit of a great people. It will be seen that at the time the book was written a firm attitude to Nazi Germany was always backed by a willingness for conciliation right to the end.

October 1939.

