PUBLIC LIBRARY

Borrowers are urged to make their requirements known to the assistant on duty at the Enquiry Desk. Suggestions from borrowers are welcomed.

Books from the Central Library will be sent to the branch libraries on request.

The time allowed for the reading of all books is FIFTEEN DAYS including the day of issue and of return. A fine of 3d. will be levied for each week or portion of a week that a book is retained beyond the period allowed.

P825/10364 10/53 G 17228

If a borrower has not finished reading a book the loan may be renewed either personally or by telephone or post card, provided the book is not borrowed by another borrower.

Immediate intimation should be given of any change of address, and the number of any book in the hands of the borrower should be mentioned at the same time.

Borrowers are responsible for all books taken out on their tickets by any person.

The marking of books with pencil or otherwise defacing them is an offence under the by-laws. Borrowers are responsible for the condition of the books which they return; they must, therefore, on borrowing a book, examine it and then inform a staff member if it is in any way defaced.

Books returned by a native messenger must be properly wrapped up.

All complaints should be made in writing to the Librarian.
